

SKC CH SHOW 19/05/17 - King Charles Spaniels

PD (3,2a)

1 Gillhespy's Lorphil Lost Treasure, this well broken tri has a lovely head with good dark & well set eyes, body short & compact, steady mover, should have a bright future.

JD (2)

1 Sidgwick's Paulian Where's Wally, keen well made tri, lightly marked, pleasant head, very good neck & shoulders, straight level topline, very sound on the move back & front, only just out of puppy;

2 Mallows' X-jewel Od Dvou Orechu Binglui, pleasing b/t with lovely head, adequate bone, his movement is sound overall, a pleasing king Charles with a slight eye problem, should have a bright future.

PGD (4,1)

1 P Where's Wally; 2 Coupland's Tucherish Guilty Verdict, ideal size, well broken tri, not a lot to separate these two; 3 Sproul & Coburn's Khandro Liverpool Lullaby.

LD (7,2)

1 CC & BOB & the 3rd litter mate to gain a champion title, Miller & Ryan's Amantra Regius of Feorlig, well broken blen with wonderful bone, very cobby in body & so sound back & front, beautifully presented, pleasant head, good eye, whilst a better skull would be the icing on the cake it was a very masculine head;

2 Goodwin's Diggle Dandelion, richly marked blen, up to size, pleasing head, well proportioned body, wonderful bone, very sound free mover;

3 Bowles-Robinson's Baldragon Brecon.

OD (3)

1 RCC, Williams' Ch Gr Ch Maibee Orlando, worthy champion, lots to admire, he was a little light in body on the day, has good bone, cobby body, moves freely & was in good coat;

2 Sproul & Coburn's Baldragon Berkeley for Khandro, lovely headed male with a lovely well placed & set eye, good bone, sound free moving dog, just would like him a little shorter behind;

3 Maddison's Celxo Charles Dickens.

VD (0).

PB (1)

1 Bowles-Richardson's Baldragon Hold That Thought, attending her first show & I was delighted to award her BP, a delightful headed blen with such a lovely expression, I liked her well proportioned body, has good bone, I gave her sire BP at his first show & he did well & I hope this lovely puppy ends up a credit to him.

JB (1)

1 Coupland's Winie Od Dvou Orechu And Tucherish, lovely sized b/t, a most appealing head with delightful expression, good body proportions & a cobby body, would like more neck.

PGB (3,1)

1 Kendall & Askins' Cofton Winter Time Tale at Headra, impressive lightly marked blen, pleasing head, lovely eye, good nose placement, good width of underjaw, such an excellent balanced body & she is cobby, good bone & ultra sound on the move, a keen showgirl that I was happy to award her her first CC;

2 Sproul & Coburn's Khandro Ur My World, lovely headed bitch with again the correct proportions, nice spring of rib, good bone, could settle in rear movement.

LB (4,1)

1 Miller & Ryan's Clussexx Reign It In Cavallibrook, a most appealing headed tri, lovely eyes, good skull, correct earset, lacking coat but has nothing to hide, she should with luck go to the top;

2 Gillhespy's Lorphil's Design, nice size cobby body, sound mover, between coats today; 3 Sproul & Coburn's Sugar Plum Pie for Khandro.

OB (2)

1 RCC, Willey & Siddle's Ch Penemma Misty For Me, lightly marked & worthy champion, balanced head, wonderful neck & shoulders, very sound free mover with a well proportioned body, well presented;

2 Coupland's Ch Tucherish Julie Christie, very pretty tri in good coat & condition, lovely head with the sweetest express, little unsettled on the move, worthy champion.
