I would like to thank the committee for inviting me, and the exhibitors for their entries, and dealing so well with our hastily put together ring. We have some lovely young animals coming up, which is very good for the breed. We still must watch that we don't go too large. It's a fine balance that we must try to achieve with soundness, type, bone and a proper little toy spaniel. I still think our bitches are stronger than our dogs at the moment.

Limit Dog (9 entries) Abs 0

1st Jackson Mrs T M Amantra Regal Duke

What an absolute joy this boy was to get my hands on! His outline in the class was superb. Well marked, cobby little toy, with good bone. Moved freely with such elegance. Sometimes when you see a dog this exciting on the ground they may disappoint on the table, but no need to worry here. Good straight legs, nice deep chest, on to well sprung ribs, well turned stifles, with plenty of drive. His head is well domed, large dark eyes and pigmentation, making an overall pleasing expression. I will enjoy watching this beautiful toy spaniel progress into a Champion. My Dog CC and BOB.

2nd Pennington Mrs J Tudourhurst Aramis

A lovely richly marked Blenheim boy, who when he puts his mind to it moves like a dream! Beautiful full cushioned face, long ear leathers set nice and low. Dark eyes and pigmentation. Nice open nostrils and square muzzle. Was just beat on movement today by the 1st. My RCC

I found this class particularly difficult to judge today. We were having a lot of very heavy rain which I felt was upsetting some of the dogs. Saying that, this lovely Ruby was not bothered at all. A very sound dog both ways. Lovely head, good cushioning, dark eye. Nice neck and lay of shoulders. Well sprung rib and good turn of stifle. Would have liked a bit more coat.

2nd Smith Mr & Mrs S C Headras Truly Magic is Justacharma

A very nice tri boy. Well marked, good bone , nice straight legs. Moved very well around the ring. Good ear placement, black well placed nose and eyes. Lovely deep chest, making a pleasing overall look.
