

United Kingdom Toydog Society Saturday, 31st March, 2012
King Charles Spaniel

I thoroughly enjoyed my day assessing an entry of 81 – with very few absentees. Steady progress is being made generally and I had many examples of healthy, fit dogs of good temperament.

Temperament is a most important feature of a Charlie, and should always take precedence over minor faults. Whilst the standard states "Reserved, gentle and affectionate" this in no way allows for nervousness.
