Tri Dog, Correct head with well domed skull and well cushioned muzzle, dark eye. This young dog was the best on the move of all the exhibits on the day. Despite an uneven ring with up hill and down dale grass, he still covered the ground effortlessly with excellent front extension. He has a well-covered frame, good bone, cobby, with good rib and short loin. Handled and schooled excellently,

Tri dog, Classic Charlie, cobby body, well-sprung rib, short loin, well boned, but not course.

Lovely outgoing demeanour, enjoying his day out. Excellent head, good cushioning, lips exactly meeting, giving the appealing nice finish, dark eye. Movement was a joy, you could see he has good muscle tone and his construction was reflected in his effortless action. Dog CC and BOB

2nd: 2055 MOSS Mrs M F Ch Amantra Dickens With Sombur

This Tri dog has a large head, appealing expression, well constructed, but today lacked that x factor. He was somewhat lacklustre, and movement not as good as when I have seen him before.

3rd: 2097 SMITH Mr & Mrs S C Justacharma He Is Our Magic JW

Superb dog with everything I'd want in a charley, good coat, super pigmentation, excellent movement. Correct head and well-cushioned face, dark eye, presented in excellent condition.

Tri bitch. It's sometimes easy to overlook the little things that make a good dog excellent.

There were a number of X factor things about her. I loved her head and appealing face, and the "lips exactly meeting" just made a perfect finish. Well cushioned under her dark eyes and soft expression. She has excellent coat, long ear furnishings, shown in tiptop condition. She has a good depth of chest, short coupled, cobby body. Good angulation front and rear; makes her a pleasure to watch on the move. Importantly she is outgoing and easy to handle. Bitch CC
