

Three Counties Championship Show 7.6.19
King Charles Spaniel

BEST OF BREED : Champion Amantra Chorale.

Dog CC : Melville's Champion Amantra Chorale.

Res Dog CC : Schilizzi & Healy-Gates' Chacombe Albert.

Bitch CC : Austin & Baker's Cofton Dancing Though Life JW.

Res Bitch CC : Stewart's Champion Marchog MacFlannelette.

Best Puppy : Baker's Cofton Soldier Boy.

The weather was kind, enabling judging to be completed on grass in the spacious outside ring. What a pleasure it was to go over so many lovely Charlies in a beautiful show ground set against the backdrop of the Malvern Hills. The breed is dear to my heart, and I enjoyed going over every single one of the exhibits. Thank you to the exhibitors for giving me the opportunity to indulge myself!

PUPPY D (6, 0 Absent)

1. Baker's Cofton Soldier Boy, confident young tricolour dog showing off his attributes admirably; very good shape with level topline, low set tail, nice neck carriage carrying his head well, making a very pleasing picture standing and moving; clear body markings, even head markings; very attractive head with large dark eyes, nice dome; lovely strong bone for his size. Best Puppy Dog. Best Puppy in Breed.

2. Clarke's Stonepit Wilfred For Poltomic , another quality tricolour with bright tan markings, clear body markings; showing promise for his show career with his good sized head, full dome and skull, large dark eyes and open nostrils; nice substance with well constructed body, short level topline, good ribcage and bone.

3. Smith's Justacharma Magic Goes On.

JUNIOR D (6, 3 Absent)

1. Jackson's Lankcombe Kings Speech Amantra, nice size young tricolour dog with bright tan markings; lovely head and good dome; wide muzzle, good turnup; nice neck leading to a level topline, good ribcage, straight front; good bone for size; coat of silky texture; moved well round the ring.

2. Hunter's Kasamanda Hamilton Of Hoebarton , heavily marked tricolour dog with bright tan markings; good coat and furnishings in excellent condition, attractive head with a good dome and wide muzzle; low set ears with long fringes; somewhat reluctant to show himself off to his best.

3. Smith's Mitapip Black Is Magic For Justacharma.

POST GRAD D (8, 2 Absent)

1. Schilizzi & Healy-Gates' Chacombe Albert, this well marked tricolour dog had bright tan markings above the eyes and on his cheeks, clear body markings; in excellent coat of silky texture with long ear fringes; good sized head and dome with melting expression; large dark round eyes, open nostrils, low set ears; nice neck leading to level topline; well constructed frame, lovely ribcage, compact body; looked good from every angle; true movement; typical toy spaniel; very balanced throughout. RCC.

2. Hardiman's Tovarich Ticket To Ride, more lightly marked tricolour dog with a good tan markings; good skull with dark eyes and nice width of muzzle; lovely ribcage and depth; happy outgoing disposition; moved well.

3. French & Traynor's Mitapip Elusive Ruby.

LIMIT D (11, 1 Absent)

1. Rushton's Justacharma He Is So Magic At Tiflin, lightly marked blenheim with well placed clear patches of colour and a lozenge on the skull; lovely shape, with a nice arch of neck leading to a short level topline, and well set and carried tail; very attractive good sized head with full dome, wide blaze, low set ears and dark eyes giving a lovely expression; good pigment; nice sized compact exhibit with good bone for his size; moved elegantly round the ring showing well.

2. French & Traynor's Celxo Vermouth On Ice, masculine, showy blenheim dog with well distributed markings on body and lozenge on skull; good outline with a nice reach of neck; nicely proportioned head with good dome, nice width of muzzle; in good coat; moved steadily.

3. Cox's Petitpaws Black Knight.

OPEN D (9, 2 Absent)

1. Melville's Champion Amantra Chorale, masculine but with no hint of coarseness, this tricolour dog was an ideal size combined with lovely substance, and retaining the look of a Toy Spaniel; good sized head with excellent dome and lovely width of muzzle, nice turn up of jaw, large dark eyes, wide blaze, low set well fringed ears; nice arch of neck leading to compact body with level topline, low set tail, excellent chest, ribcage and bone for size; moved well, holding his outline at all times; picture completed by silky well presented coat. Dog CC & Best of Breed.

2. Byers' Champion Lanola Giorgio Armani With Simannie , tricolour dog with masculine properties and a sweet expression; excellent head with good dome, wide blaze and large dark expressive eyes; well marked body with heavy bone for size; nice arch of neck; level topline and well set and carried tail; good ribcage and chest; shown in excellent silky coat and condition.

3. Stewart's Champion Kasamanda Just A Dream for Marchog.

VETERAN D (3, 0 Absent)

1. Smith's Champion Headra's Truly Magic Is Justacharma, lovely breed qualities displayed in this well marked nice sized tricolour dog; level topline, well carried tail; good ribcage, strongly made straight front legs, good width of chest; low set ears and even blaze accentuating his beautifully domed skull, large dark eyes, open nostrils, soft expression.

2. Austin's Dragonheart Of Winter, well marked tricolour dog with good body markings and bright tan, who moved well round the ring; nice size with good bone; typical head with full dome, large dark eyes and open nostrils, nice turn up of jaw; good substance throughout with good chest and ribcage; well carried low set tail.

3. Austin's Oh Dandy Boy Hero.

PUPPY B (3, 0 Absent)

1. Southam's Cavella Cast A Dream, pleasing lightly marked blenheim with a lovely arch of neck leading to level topline and low set tail; excellent head properties and dome for such a youngster with wide blaze accentuating the skull; large dark eyes, low set ears, wide muzzle, sweet expression; strong straight front legs.

2. Rushton's Justacharma Only The Magic For Tiflin, tricolour with very pretty head, good skull, wide muzzle with good turn up; lightly marked with wide blaze and bright tan markings; level topline; well set tail.

3. Baker's Cofton To The Moon And Back

JUNIOR B (3, 1 Absent)

1. Champion's Lankcombe Bette Davis, tricolour bitch with good tan markings; appealing expression with good skull and dome, large dark eyes and good width of muzzle; wide blaze; nicely arched neck leading to level topline and well set and carried tail; good ribcage and bone; moved well; happy personality.

2. Baker's Cofton Fly Me To The Moon, beautifully balanced tricolour bitch puppy with a good sized head, lovely dome, wide muzzle, large dark eyes, low set well fringed ears; good chest and ribcage, strong bone, nice angulation; nice arch of neck; low set tail; lovely clear body markings. Best Puppy Bitch.

POST GRAD B (6, 2 Absent)

1. Skelton's Tudorhurst Sorceress At Elfindor, quality blenheim bitch with clearly defined markings and an appealing expression; good head and skull, large eyes, nice width of muzzle and turnup; lovely long feathering on low set ears; level topline, nicely balanced body and outline; good bone and substance for size; moved confidently and well.

2. Williams' Kasamanda My Serendipity, tricolour bitch in good coat with long ear fringes and bright tan markings; lovely head with an excellent dome and low set ears with long fringes; large dark eyes and lovely width of muzzle with good turn up; well made frame and good bone; moved steadily.

3. Clarke's Mitapip Sweet Rosey For Poltomic.

LIMIT B (6, 2 Absent)

1. Austin & Baker's Cofton Dancing Though Life JW, beautiful bitch with desired breed qualities, so well balanced throughout; such an attractive face, sweet expression, large dark eyes, wide muzzle and low set ears setting off her full dome; compact frame with excellent ribcage and chest, short well boned strong straight front legs; level topline with well set and carried tail; excellent coat of correct silky texture, well marked body, even blaze, good tan markings; moved steadily; good substance throughout but still feminine and on top form. Bitch CC, delighted to hear that this gave her the title of Champion.

2. Hardiman's Tovarich Teanna, very feminine black & tan in excellent coat of good silky texture; most attractive face with well domed skull, large dark eyes; arched neck leading to level topline and well set tail; bright tan markings in all the right places; moved well holding her outline.

3. Rushton's Justacharma She Is So Magic At Tiflin.

OPEN B (9, 4 Absent)

1. Stewart's Champion Marchog MacFlannelette, lovely size black & tan bitch with excellent tan markings to contrast with her black jacket; good sized head with large dark eyes, open nostrils and wide muzzle; nicely constructed with good strong bone, good width of chest and ribcage; level topline and well carried tail; in good coat, a typically compact and feminine example of the breed who looked a picture standing and moving round the ring. Bitch RCC.

2. Jackson's Champion Amantra Regalia JW, well coated tricolour with a good size full domed head, low set ears, lovely width of muzzle and large dark eyes combining to produce a delightful expression; good body construction with excellent ribcage and chest, strong bone; good neck, short level topline, good rear end; well balanced throughout and a disposition to match; moved well.

3. Miller & Ryan's Clussexx Reign It In Cavallibrook (Imp USA).

VETERAN B (3, 1 Absent)

1. Robinson's Champion Baldragon She Demands JW, tricolour bitch with a beautifully full dome on a very pretty head with large dark eyes and good width of muzzle; tan markings in the right places, and black markings evenly distributed on body; very low set ears; good arch of neck leading to short level topline, well set tail; nice bone for size; well constructed quality exhibit.

2. Austin's Baldragon May Bea Baby, feminine tricolour bitch with a pretty face, dark eyes, nicely domed skull and wide muzzle; well distributed black markings on pearly white background, beautifully deep bright tan markings on the head; level topline.

Nigel Marsh

Judge